

The Multicultural Center Prague is cordially inviting you for an international conference:

Beyond Borders: Migration and (In)Equality in Central Europe in Comparison

January 23 – 24, 2014

Faculty of Humanities at Charles University – Jinonice, Prague

Preliminary Program

Thursday: January 23

9:30–11:00 Migration in Central Europe in Comparative Perspective of the Visegrad Group

11:00–11:30 Coffee Break

11:30–13:00 Human Rights in the Context of State Security and Migration Control

13:00–14:00 Lunch Break

14:00–15:30 Migrant Workers Inside and Outside of the Labor Code: A Case of the Electronics Industry

15:30–16:00 Coffee Break

16:00–17:30 Workshops

1. Cooperation between the State and NGOs
2. Countering Criminalization and Economization of Migrants in Media
3. How to Read Statistical Data on Migration?

19:00–21:00 Screening of Short Films on Migration & Discussion (Světovzor Cinema – small theater)

Detailed information can be obtained at:

<http://migrationtothecentre.migraceonline.cz>

The language of communication is English, but interpretation to and from Czech will be provided.

Registration for the panels and/or workshops is at:
daniela.penickova@mkc.cz.

Friday: January 24

9:30–11:30 Migration, Citizenship and the Politics of Belonging

11:00–11:30 Coffee Break

11:30–13:00 Migration and Health in Central Europe and European Union

13:00–13:15 Official Closing Statement – Future Events & Collaboration Planning

The conference is open to migrants, analysts, scholars, state officials, activists and all people concerned with the current issues of migration.

Partners: People in Need (CZ) and the Visegrad Group countries represented by: the Center for Independent Journalism (HU), Institute of Public Affairs (PL), Peace Institute (SLO), and Human Rights League (SK).

Sponsors: The EU's Program – Europe for Citizens, Visegrad Fund, and Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Czech Republic